

MRS. ASTOR DECLARES A NEW 600.

SOCIETY

were Mrs. Ed. Ferry, Mrs. McClure and Miss Lord, and Mrs. Robert Harkness and Mrs. Mont. Perry presided at the punch bowl. Assisting in the dining room were Misses Thorn, Judge, Nason, Sherman, Kimball, Woodward and Mrs. Burns Macdonald. Mrs. O. W. Powers and Mrs. Howat served coffee and cake. The Howat served light music was rendered by Miss Sibyl Anderson's orchestra. About 250 guests were present during the afternoon.

Miss Virginia Brecken entered informally at a chafing dish party on Thursday evening.

The marriage of Miss Belle Zemisky of San Francisco, and Ralph Louis Reynolds of this city, will take place in the former city on Monday.

Some acquaintances of Miss Mary Hooper and Mr. Frank Harman of this city, whose idea of wit reflects in an uncompromising way upon their in-

The week has been a notable one in the way of charming entertainments, and the coming one promises a no less exceptional record. The recital and reception given by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller at the Congregational church on Tuesday night heads the list for the present week and the reception given by the Medanses Walker this afternoon, the card-party by Mrs. W. V. Rice on Thursday and Mrs. Channing's smaller affairs were among the most delightful of the list.

An event that will be among the memorable ones of the season for its delightful and unique features was the double function given by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Miller at the Congregational church on Tuesday night. The recital was a delightful surprise to the many present, and the reception which followed was especially charming in its many unique features.

The guests were received at the church entrance by Mr. L. C. Miller, Dr. C. J. Plummer, Dr. G. F. Stiehl and Mr. George M. Nolan, and at the reception following the recital Mrs. Clarence T. Brown, Mrs. Robert Roberts, Mrs. Lakin, Mrs. J. Gorham, Mrs. J. W. Smith, Mrs. G. F. Stiehl and Mrs. M. T. Bailey assisted in receiving and entertaining the guests. The church was beautifully decorated, the Sunday school room where the reception which followed the recital, was held, being converted into an ideal salon for the occasion. Florist Huddart and Mr. Sheip, of Walker Bros., were the artists and created a charming picture. The platform in front of the organ was bordered by a hedge of small palms and the railing back of it was lined with plants with a great cluster of roses as center piece. Tall palms were set at the corners of the organ, and a large vase of roses sat on a table near the piano. The front of the organ was hung with draperies, the music blending with those of the instrument. A beautiful feature was the stained window on the west electric globe arranged outside, lighting up the picture with exquisite effect. At the close of the recital the sliding doors separating the church from the side rooms were opened and glimpses of a fairy-like picture were seen. Tall plants edged the front of the central room, and around the walls electric globes, faintly shaded in pink, cast a pretty rose tint over all. Oriental draperies, gracefully arranged, covered the arches, walls and windows, and rugs formed pretty booths in the north and south corners where punch was served by Mrs. Hosmer and Miss Salisbury. The large alcove on the north was converted into a bower with palms, flowers and pretty draperies, and here the host and hostess assisted by Mrs. Percy Somers Cocks received their guests. Opposite this nook, separated from the larger room by an archway festooned with pretty draperies, stood a long table, lit with pink shaded lamps, and strewn with pink carnations and smilax, the vista effect, with the many trees, creating a charming picture. Here a half dozen of Franklyn's aids handed loss and coffee to the gentlemen, who served the ladies in the large room.

About 200 guests were present and expressions of admiration were heard on all sides. Mrs. Miller, whose organ recital delighted her audience, is a pupil of Prof. Radcliffe.

This afternoon Mrs. J. R. Walker and Mrs. Charles Walker entertained at an elaborate reception in honor of Mrs. Foote of San Francisco, mother of Mrs. Charles Walker. The rooms were beautifully decorated with palms, smilax and roses, baskets of pink and white roses being used in the parlors and library, and red roses in the dining room, with streamers of smilax in artistic effect. Assisting in the library

Henry Lund, Mrs. M. J. Shell, Mrs. Austin Whitney, Mrs. George Lambert, Mrs. G. F. Felt, Mrs. George Ellerbeck, Mrs. Vivian McCune, Mrs. W. C. Spence, Mrs. J. O. Ellerbeck, Mrs. W. C. Kimball, Mrs. Lee, Mrs. Harding, Mrs. N. H. Clayton, Mrs. L. C. Karrick, the Misses Howat, Hayes, Bessie Clawson, Laura Sanders, Endy Moffat, Lulu Spence, Kathie Douglas, Rebecca Morris, Jane Mackintosh, Afton Young, Ida Savage, Vida Eccles of Ogden, Bowring, Dwyer, Geneva and Ethel Felt.

Mrs. W. V. Rice gave an elaborate card-party at the Knutsford on Thursday afternoon complimentary to Mrs. Robert B. Harkness. The red and green rooms were used, and the decorations, screens and tables were carried out in white and red. There were thirty tables.

On Monday, Mrs. C. J. Plummer entertained the Reviewers club at a delightful buffet luncheon complimentary to Mrs. Elmer B. Jones, president of the club. The club colors, pale and dark red, were carried out in the decorations, with charming effect, and also throughout luncheon. Besides the club members were a number of guests, among them Mrs. W. C. Jennings, Mrs. Stuart, Mrs. Platt and Miss Van Fleet, together with a number of honorary members and others.

At the Ladies' Literary club house last Wednesday evening, the employees of the Paris Millinery company gave a dancing and card party, which was a very successful and enjoyable affair. Dancing commenced at 8:30 and continued for a three week's stay and will visit in Salt Lake for a few days on her way home.

On Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Morton French entertained at an elaborate dinner in honor of Mr. French's sister, Miss Alice French, who is better known to the public as the talented writer, Octave Thanet, and Mrs. Crawford. The table was beautifully decorated in pink and green, carnations being used with plumosa and smilax in charming effect. A spread of Mexican drawn-work over pink carnations formed the centerpiece, and at each end of the table was a candelabra with pink shades, surrounded with plumosa and smilax. Bunches of pink carnations were tied to the air of each guest. The guests were: Mrs. French, Mrs. Crawford, Dr. and Mrs. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Lewis, Judge and Mrs. Roy, Mrs. Dunford, Miss Kimball, Dr. Garrison.

Miss Alice French and Mrs. Crawford were guests of honor at a delightful luncheon given in their honor by Mrs. Eugene Lewis on Tuesday. The decorative scheme was carried out in red, American beauty roses, holly and carnations being effectively used. Besides the guests of honor were present Mrs. George Y. Wallace, Mrs. Morton French, Mrs. W. C. Jennings, Mrs. Belton, Mrs. Parsons, Mrs. Elmer Jones, Mrs. Stewart, Mrs. Van Arman, Mrs. C. D. Moore, Mrs. Ewing, Mrs. Vincent.

On Tuesday Mrs. Henry Styer was hostess at a delightful Kensington in honor of Mrs. Downey and Mrs. W. G. Sharp. The rooms were decorated with Philippine souvenirs and delicious refreshments were served. The guests were: Madames R. Walker, Charles Walker, Potts, D. R. Gray, Rookledge, Bidwell, Powers, Charles Wilkes, Pfouts and Misses Sherman, Eloise Sherman, Salisbury, Carter, Rookledge, Lowe, Mason and Harkness.

Principal McKay, of the Lowell school, was the recipient of a delightful surprise party on Thursday night, a number of the teachers and pupils of the school, with a few others descending upon him in a body at his home on East First South street. The evening was pleasantly spent and delicious refreshments were served at its close.

Mrs. W. S. Earls, who has been spending several months in Missouri, has returned.

Mrs. Jack Armstrong Jenve of Los Angeles is visiting with her sister, Mrs. David Murray.

Mrs. E. A. Wall will entertain in honor of her daughter Selma on Tuesday evening, Jan. 21st.

Next Friday the members of company H of the National Guard will give a party at the Armory. Following are

The "four hundred" as a term used as a means of designating New York City's most exclusive social set, is now as dead as Ward McAllister, its famous founder. Mrs. John Jacob Astor, the presiding genius of New York society, has created a new 600 and the "six hundred" will henceforth be the cognomen of the social aristocracy of Gotham. The above halftones show the women selected by Mrs. Astor to head the new social set.

lightful informal function on Tuesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. W. G. Sharp and Mrs. Downey.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simon and daughter left on Wednesday for California.

Mr. and Mrs. Seebie have gone to California.

eral weeks. During their absence Miss Eva Snow will be the guest of Miss Olive Yard, at 618 east, Third South street.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Yard left on Wednesday for Galveston, Tex.

Miss Clara Hawkins of the survey-

Mrs. Graham F. Putnam will give a pupils' piano recital at her residence on next Tuesday evening. No invitations are issued but all friends will be welcomed.

Miss Dora E. Gross of Denver visited relatives in the city during the week.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Matzen of Hooper, Neb., and Mr. C. J. Hahn of McCormick's bank of this city, took place in Ogden on Wednesday, the newly married couple coming to Salt Lake after the ceremony. Their friends wish them all happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Hawyer, who have been visiting for some time in the East, have returned.

Mrs. Price and Miss Eva Price, who have been spending the past four months in St. George, have returned and are at their home on North State street.

Mrs. M. C. Godbe entertained at a delightful children's party on Tuesday for her little daughter. A large number were present, and the afternoon enjoyably spent in games.

Among the pleasant events of the week was the musicale given by Mrs. G. F. Putnam, complimentary to the members of the music section of the Ladies' Literary club.

OGDEN SOCIAL NEWS

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 18.—The beautiful home of Mrs. C. M. Andrews, No. 2331 Orchard avenue, was the scene of a delightful afternoon party given Thursday by Mrs. Andrews to a large circle of her lady friends. The color scheme which was carried out to perfection, was white, pink and green. High five was played during the early part of the afternoon. Mrs. Laura Reynolds winning the head prize, an elegant cut glass olive dish. The consolation was out for by the ladies, Mrs. Sam Cave being the winner.

After cards, a sumptuous spread of three courses was served in the dining room; the color scheme was carried out in the menu. After the repast Mrs. Mamie Harrington Stevens and Mrs. Mary Farley entertained the guests with some sweet vocal music. The guests left at a late hour in the afternoon, pronouncing Mrs. Andrews a royal entertainer. The invited guests were Mesdames Fitzgerald, Brick, Larkin, Denver, Flesher, Rhine, Reynolds, Farley, Gulliver, Ryan, McGraw, Carr, Stevens, Cave, McIntosh, Calkins, Fulton, Langsdorf, Healy, Mewellen, Sadt, White, Luckett, Toy, Corse, Campbell, Peck, Rowlands, Stokes and Miss McIntosh.

Tuesday evening a number of Mrs. Adeline Greenwell's friends called at her home and took possession of the same by perfect surprise. The even-

PAYNE'S NIECE TO STORM CAPITAL.

Miss Louise Jones, of Milwaukee, she will cut a dashing figure in Washington society. She is about twenty-five years old and very beautiful.

The committee on arrangements: E. E. Pike, Scott Woodward, Walter Waif, W. E. Schoppe, Emmet Moore and W. G. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Meacham and Mrs. Hoyt, of St. Paul, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Boxrud.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weir left for the East on Wednesday.

Next Wednesday the Utah Press men will entertain the Western Canada Press association at a recital and reception at the Tabernacle at 3 p. m.

Miss Claire Douglas entertained a few friends informally at her home last night in honor of her guests, Miss Florence Williamson and Miss Wright, of Ogden.

Mrs. W. D. Ritter entertained the Kensington club at her home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Walker entertained the Card club on Tuesday night.

Mr. M. J. Friedman of Auerbach & Bros. left for New York on Thursday evening to join Mr. S. H. Auerbach. He will be absent for about six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Fenton entertained at dinner last night in honor of Gov. and Mrs. Wolf. The table was decorated in pink and white, and covers were laid for ten.

Mrs. H. D. Styer entertained at a de-

The card club met with Mrs. Sadler on Monday night.

A pleasant event of the week was the ball given at Christensen's hall on Tuesday night by the International Brotherhood of Machinists No. 106.

The wedding of Miss Chloe Hunter and Frederick R. Wooley will take place next Thursday.

Mrs. F. A. Vincent has issued invitations for Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons of next week.

Mr. Thomas Blythe of Evanston, Wyo., has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. Jack Keith during the week.

Jay Groo has returned from his California trip.

Miss Claire Douglas has for her guests this week Misses Julia Wright and Florence Williamson of Ogden.

Mrs. George A. Snow has been the guest of Mrs. W. H. Chevers in Ogden for the past few days.

Mrs. W. A. Nelden leaves tomorrow for the east. She will be absent for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. Egan will be at home at 211 South Sixth East street till the completion of their new home about March 1. Mrs. Egan will receive her friends on Wednesdays.

Miss Vida Eccles, of Ogden, has been the guest of Miss Myrtle Banks during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Simon and daughter left on Tuesday for New York.

Mrs. William Reid entertained at luncheon on Wednesday in honor of Mrs. F. M. Smith.

Rev. and Mrs. Willidge Walker of St. Paul's church left during the week for the west.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. F. Reynolds of Ogden were the guests of Attorney-General and Mrs. Brecken during the week.

Mrs. G. W. Snow and daughter leave next week for California to spend sev-

MISS ROOT'S POPULARITY GROWS.

Miss Edith Root, daughter of the secretary of war, is one of the most popular belles in Washington. Her in other not caring much for society, the chief responsibility of entertaining falls upon the shoulders of this beautiful young girl, who is winning more hearts every day by her gracious manner.

Intelligence, perpetrated an alleged joke upon the two young people last week by handing into the newspapers of the city an announcement of their engagement, for which no foundation existed. There is nothing humorous in such things, and the perpetrators are in hard straits for amusements when they will descend to such cheap schemes for a passing gratification.

Misses Ada and Genevieve Ellerbeck entertained at cards this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Horace Ellerbeck about fifty guests being present. The rooms were decorated in pink and green and the blinds were drawn and candelabra were used with pink shades. The scores were hand-painted in water-colors, the work of Mrs. Heber Lee, and the tables were Gibson heads in black and white. The guests were: Mrs. C. M. Benedict, Mrs. T. R. Ellerbeck, Mrs. T. D. Lewis, Mrs. John Groesbeck, Jr., Mrs. H. S. Ensign, Mrs. George Marshall, Mrs. Bert Horne, Mrs. Witten Ellerbeck, Mrs. Geo. Reed, Mrs. Anthony Godbe, Mrs. W. S. Ellerbeck, Mrs. E. Hill, Jr., previous to his departure for the Southern States mission. A most enjoyable evening was spent. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. B. Whitehouse, Mr. and Mrs. Granville McNeil, Mr. and Mrs. John Williams, Mrs. W. H. Hill, Mrs. Bagley, the Misses Alice and Nettie Hill, Pearl Tomlinson, Mildred Melendy, Sadie Wheelhouse, Daisy and Ruby Derr, Jane and Emily Allworth, May and Pearl Roberts, Ethel Reeves, Katie McNeil, Alice Galloway, Minnie Sheppard, Lizzie and Mary Hill, Messrs. Archie Pittet, Thomas and Isaac Lambert, William Allworth, Lamin Pratt, David Shinnon, Alfred Thompson, Charles Burns, J. Goodfellow, J. Roneberg, W. Barnes.

Mrs. Susa Y. Gates and Miss Emma Lucy Gates will leave early next week for New York where Miss Gates will begin her concert tour under Major Pond. Her Salt Lake friends will watch her career with exceptional interest.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Channing gave a delightful dinner party on Thursday night in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Harkness. The decorations were in pink and green, the table with pink carnations and ferns and with candelabra shaded in pink, while a shower bouquet of carnations and ferns hung from the chandelier. Besides the guests of honor were present Mrs. W. G. Sharp, Mrs. Harkness, Miss Blanch Burke, Miss Judge, Mr. Walcott Thompson, Mr. Wicks, Mr. Heintz.

On Wednesday Mrs. R. H. Channing entertained at a delightful luncheon, about twenty-five guests being present. The decorations were in yellow and white, azaleas and marguerites being prettily used with ferns. Her guests were Mrs. Arthur Bird, Mrs. Lindsay, Mrs. Boyd, Mrs. Babcock, Mrs. J. R. Walker, Mrs. Pearsall, Mrs. Charles Walker, Mrs. Burns Macdonald, Mrs. Duke Baxter, Mrs. New Perry, Mrs. Hayward, Mrs. Charles H. Post, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. O. W. Powers, Mrs. Louise Smiley Smith, the Misses Dooley, Burke, Kinney, Porter, Woodward, Nason, Lowe, Thorn.

Salt Lake has a distinguished visitor during the week in the person of Miss Alice French, or "Octave Thanet," the noted writer whose stories published in the leading magazines for many years past have delighted the reading public. Miss French has gone to Chi-

MILADY'S LEATHER AUTOMOBILE JACKET

Shave Yourself?
Shaving one's self is a real luxury, if before and after shaving you use
Woodbury's Facial Cream

It softens the beard, clears, soothes and heals the skin, leaving it smooth, firm and white.

Woodbury's Facial Cream is best for all toilet uses. Sold by dealers, 25 cents each. Booklet free. Trial size 1 cent. Soap and cream 5 cents postpaid. Andrew Jergens & Co., Sole Agents, Dept. 114 Cincinnati, O.

PALE BLUE CORDUROY.

Light blue corduroy is the winter girls' choice in heavy waists. This soft blue is relieved by cordings of black velvet stock.